Nascar's Hendricks Motorsports and Motorsports Authentics has chosen the Children of Fallen Soldiers Relief Fund to receive a portion of profits received from the Honoring Our Soldiers Program this Memorial Day weekend! All Nascar fans are able to take a look at the special patriotic themed items that are Honoring Our Soldiers.

Remember now is a good time to add to your collections for when you place an order you will also be showing appreciation for the many sacrifices made daily by the strongest force in our Nation, our military! You don't have to be a racing fan to Honor Our Soldiers this memorial day and if you are and your driver does not drive number 5, 48, 88, 24 one of your buddies who just may be a veteran may appreciate you remembering him or her. You may have family members or brothers in arms currently overseas that may enjoy a little surprise, show them that you honor and appreciate them by helping provide support to our military and their families.

Join us as we continue making dreams come true by providing financial and educational assistance to their children and families! Visit Nascar.com, RCCAMembers.com or your local Motorsports Authentics Dealer today and check back for apparel and other items. When you place an order you will also be giving a "gift" back for your continued Freedoms!

For those military veterans or active service members that are planning to be at Lowes Motorspeedway this coming Memorial weekend email us with your experiences, messages or photos to share with other Nascar fans and members of the public.

For the littlest Nascar fans whose Daddy or Mommy is or has served overseas or who may be returning home in time for the big Memorial Day celebrations contact us and share your story of you and your Hero by submitting an essay of 300 words or more about what a hero is, what a hero does, what impact they have on your life and the lives of others and their (your heros) and your favorite Nascar Driver(s) along with any other information you would like to share and a photo of your hero (Daddy or Mommy). You don't have to be a Nascar fan and your hero can be anyone in the military ~ past or present to submit your essay.

If you have your parent's permission and would like your essay to be entered in our contest for tickets to the Coca-Cola 600 on May 30th, please have your parent sign your essay and email or fax it to us at (301) 630-0592. Please call with any questions our number is toll-free:

1-866-96-CFSRF (23773)

We will choose two written entries that will receive two tickets each to Sunday's Coca-Cola 600 on May 30th, lunch, the choice of one of the Honoring Our Soldiers diecast cars as a souvenir and some other surprises. Perhaps your hero is returning in time for the race and you would like to surprise them. Share your stories and you could be sitting in the stands this coming Memorial weekend. All entries will receive a small token of our appreciation regardless of who the winners are. All entries must be received by May 10th. Entries and winners will be chosen by a special group of Nascar and CFSRF enthusiasts and notified by direct telephone contact. Please include your full name, hero's name, rank and your or your parent's email address, home address, home phone number and a copy of your tricore card or military id along with your essay.

Become part of the dream, part of the plan as I truly believe that even the smallest gesture can bring others much happiness and our veterans deserve to know that we appreciate their courage, dedication and selfless sacrifices
