

For Immediate Release
February 7, 2006

Leitner-Wise Rifle Co. Inc., based out of the D.C. Metropolitan area has a history of supplying weapons to some of the U.S. forces elite “Special Forces Groups” operating in Iraq and Afghanistan gives back to the children of fallen soldiers with their release of a limited edition of 500 Special Forces O.D.A. weapons, configured to the Special Forces unique and demanding specifications.

Each weapon will carry it's own unique serial number starting from 001 through 500 with “Special Forces O.D.A. Signature” engraved on the rifle. Why is this weapon special? Not only is it configured to the Special Forces specifications and features a patent-pending short-stroke Gas Piston operating system that runs cleaner than the direct gas impingement system of the M4/M16 and provides increased accuracy, lower felt recoil, less muzzle rise and a lower cyclic rate of fire. It also accommodates the full range of 5.56 mm and 6.8 SPC ammunition including the NATO M855/SS109, M193 and Mk262 in 5.56 mm and Remington 115 gr. OTM in 6.8 mm, it is quieter than direct gas impingement versions when utilizing suppressors and has an improved ballistic performance of the ammunition, but it is absolutely special in that every one of these weapons sold will help children of our fallen soldiers.

Leitner-Wise Rifle Co. Inc. is previewing the Special Forces O.D.A. this week in Las Vegas during the “Shot Show” and is donating $300.00 of each limited edition SF O.D.A. to the Children of Fallen Soldiers Relief Fund, Inc. TM in an effort to provide financial support to our military and their families.

“Behind every fallen soldier there is a family and with families of our own, we are both touched and indebted, by the sacrifices made by the brave men and women of the U.S. Forces serving around the world.” Leitner-Wise Rifle Co., Inc. has found a way not only to give to our Special Forces by supplying them with weapons, but in doing so are also giving back to the families of their fallen brothers in arms.

There are only 500 Limited Edition Special Forces O.D.A. weapons available.
