TO MY SON, SPC DAVID A. CAMPBELL, JR.

12/4/1979 TO 8/26/ 2009

*By: Becky Campbell,
Founder 4/23/2003*

So brave you are, so strong and so proud
My freedom fighter where are you now?

Amongst the land so far away
Your shoulders pulled back as you fight your way
Into the sand, no light to see
I pray that you will always be
Close to the one that protects us from fear
As I count on him to bring you near
And of the ones that protest those rights
To live our lives you fight with all might
Just so they can wake up each day
In our land that you've made this way
Their tears don't flow, their hearts torn in half
But, because of my son they still can laugh
Who has given them rights to all end?
You and your comrades who'll fight at each bend
The things that you'll see the fear you'll bear
While all that love you cry many a tear
Who can you count on when you come home?
I will not leave you, you are never alone
As I cry for you each night
I wish you blessed paths so bright
If only others could see what it means
To have a son like you are to me
Not knowing just where or how safe you are now
The tears they won't stop I just don't know how
To keep you close with me ever in my thoughts
I am so fearful that I'll lose you for naught.

James 1:27 Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.

This is DJ; he lost his Daddy when he was just four years old. He is now 19 and is starting his Junior year in College. We couldn't be prouder of the young man he has become. Follow your dreams DJ we will continue to be there for you!

This is Jireh She lost her Daddy when she was very young and then she and her Mom lost everything including all his photos and service awards in the Katrina Hurricane. She is now 13 with a deep feel of loss.

EVENTS

ANNUAL BATTLE OF FALLUJAH REUNION

We are honored to support and be involved in the lives of the USMC First Battalion 3rd Marines who served in the Battle of Fallujah. Many of these young men suffer from wounds, PTSD, TBI and we are there for them during every crisis offering emotional, moral, financial and educational assistance to them and their families the past 5 years.

The fighting in Fallujah cost US forces 51 killed and 425 seriously wounded, while Iraqi forces lost 8 killed and 43 wounded; insurgent losses were estimated between 1,200 and 1,350.

These proud, dedicated and self-less brothers fought the worse battle in Iraq that resulted in the loss of many of our brave young. Many of those that did make it through have sustained lifelong traumatic stress and physical injuries suffered from roll-overs, improvised explosive devices, RPGs, mortars, rounds of bullets, etc. They have fought side by side losing their brothers as they fought for Freedom of the Iraqi people and continued to fight for all of our Freedoms here at home, it is my hope that you can share our gratitude and provide them with a "gift" of appreciation. Our hearts goes out to all these young men and their families and our organization is honored to be able to help in any way we can to make their brotherhood's reunion a success and we hope that you will join us.

ABOUT US:

The Children of Fallen Soldiers Relief Fund, Inc. was founded by Becky Campbell during SPC David A. Campbell, Jr. her youngest son's deployment to Iraq Feb 2003 - Jan 2004 who was a paratrooper in the 82ND Airborne. SPC Campbell who later became a member of the Maryland National Guard lost his life on August 26, 2009 at home in a tragic automobile accident. In remembrance of my son, Dave, who I love and miss dearly this foundation will only grow stronger, just as my love for him has. I am proud of him and all our service men and women who have served and many who have lost their lives for our continued freedom.

The initial thought was to help 1 or 2 children attend college, however, that was in the beginning the fact is we just cannot stop helping these well deserving children and families during their times of financial hardships. Our awards since our first application was received in January 2005 total more than $4,500,000.00. The lives of many spouses, children, parents, grand-parents, brothers, sisters and all other family members of service men and women lost to the casualty of war are changed dramatically within moments of that dreaded notification that their loved one will not be coming home. One miniscule moment of happiness is replaced by many more days of sadness. The hope that all would be fine as their loved one would be returning to them safe and sound is forever lost and filled with an empty void.

All the liberties enjoyed during every moment of our lives are "gifted" and guaranteed by these brave service men and women. We have been given a true "gift" of love and courage, while our military families have sacrificed their future happiness and suffered a loss so tremendous that no one will ever fill the empty void that is forever left behind.

The "Children of Fallen Soldiers Relief Fund, Inc." © was founded, October 23, 2003 to help provide College

Grants to surviving U.S. Military children whose lives have been affected by the loss of a parent in the Afghanistan or Iraq wars. Our programs have been expanded to include spouses and families of severely disabled veterans affected by these two conflicts. All proceeds and donations are tax deductible under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

FEIN: 20-4526203.

We have expanded our programs and offer financial assistance that includes food, clothing, housing, utilities, insurance, auto repairs, sports equipment and fees for our children and other necessities that our families require help with. In the last three years, we have begun to offer event programs to help boost our veteran's morale and mental well-being with our Salute to Military Service in TX and CO and the Battle of Fallujah Reunion for the 1/3. We are grateful to those who continue to support us with donations and individuals, firms and other member organizations that hold annual fundraising events. It is our hope and dream that our combined efforts will enable us to continue giving a "gift" back to those who serve and their families affected.
